PRESS RELEASE, FEBRUARY 2018

La Belle Juliette celebrates love with a modern and contemporary selection of black and white photographs.

Romantic lovers or couple of rockers, cheeks to cheeks and wedding night, sweet embraces and passionate kisses, the BJ Gallery devotes its new exhibition to love, just in time for Valentine's Day!

In the 60s, Karlheinz Weinberger welcomes young rebels in his Zurich apartment where they have their first love affairs, fiery and queer. At about the same time, Léon Herschtritt photographs Les Amoureux de Paris and their gentle embraces in the Rive Gauche cafes. More recently, Catherine Balet revisits history of photography and stages her model, Ricardo, in a daring tribute to Doisneau and his Baiser de l'Hôtel de ville. Jason Langer suggests the complicity of a couple in the mere detail of their gait. Flore, with a diptych from her series une femme française en Orient, evokes sensual intimacy in precious small silver prints.

Through the works of seven artists and half a century of photography, this new exhibition & sale at the BJ gallery celebrates
